

PR Guidelines:

- Keep changes focused—one feature per PR
- Write clear commit messages
- Test your changes locally
- Reference any related issues

4. Improve Documentation

Docs matter. If you see something unclear, fix it.

- Typos, grammar, clarity improvements welcome
- Translations? Let's talk.

5. Design Contributions

UI/UX ideas? Visual assets? We're open.

- Share mockups in issues
- Discuss before implementing

Code of Conduct

This project was built by someone who spent years in counseling.

Empathy isn't optional here.

We expect:

-  Respectful communication
-  Constructive feedback
-  Patience with newcomers
-  Assumption of good intent

We don't tolerate:

-  Harassment of any kind
-  Dismissive or condescending behavior
-  Discrimination
-  Bad-faith contributions

Violators will be removed from the project.

Recognition

Contributors aren't invisible here.

- All accepted contributions credited in CHANGELOG
- Significant contributors listed in README
- You become part of the story

A Final Word From Dave

> "The forge is open. The fire is hot. If you've got something to offer—code, ideas, even just encouragement—you're welcome here."

>

> "Because the best things aren't built alone."

>

> "They're built together." ❤️

Welcome to the Triad. 🔥
